Canyon Spirit

A Luxury Rail Journey Through the American West

JUNE 2-8, 2027

Discover the historic streets of Salt Lake City and venture inside the iconic Salt Lake Temple for an exclusive, rare glimpse into a sacred masterpiece that has been closed to the public for over 130 years. Then, embrace a grand tradition of western travel as you board the magnificent Canyon Spirit for a luxury train journey. Relax in sophisticated comfort as the train ventures through dramatic mountains, twisting canyons, and the colorful desert landscapes of the American West.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO UTAH!

Welcome to Salt Lake City, “the Crossroads of the West.” Settle in for a two-night stay and get to know your fellow travelers at a welcome dinner. D

DAY 2: TEMPLE SQUARE

Don't miss your chance to explore the Salt Lake Temple from the inside! For the first time since 1893, this sacred architectural masterpiece will open its doors to the public. Experience this rare, limited-time open house event in 2027. See the grandeur, artistry, and history up close—before it closes again after dedication. This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience you'll remember forever. B, L

DAY 3: SALT LAKE CITY TO MOAB

All aboard the Canyon Spirit for a breathtaking three-day luxury train adventure. Travel along stunning landscapes, through the historic Thistle Tunnels, and over Soldier Summit. Follow the dramatic curves of Price River Canyon before arriving in Moab, a desert town alive with color, charm, and unforgettable scenery. Take in the sunset, wander the streets, and let the adventure continue. B, L

DAY 4: MOAB TO GLENWOOD SPRINGS

Enjoy a leisurely morning in Moab, a gateway to Utah's iconic red rock landscapes, with time to relax or explore the area's natural beauty. Depart in the early afternoon aboard the Canyon Spirit and delight in a freshly prepared lunch and dinner as the train winds across the Utah-Colorado border. Dramatic mountain vistas and rolling landscapes set the stage for your arrival in the welcoming resort town of Glenwood Springs. B, L, D

DAY 5: GLENWOOD SPRINGS TO DENVER

Leave Glenwood Springs aboard the Canyon Spirit and enjoy lunch while the scenery unfolds outside your window. Travel through rugged canyons, follow the twists of the Colorado River, and cross the iconic Continental Divide before reaching the vibrant city of Denver. B, L

DAY 6: DENVER

Experience Denver like never before on a guided city tour, bringing the city's history and energy to life. Stand beneath the gleaming gold dome of the Colorado State Capitol and take in sweeping views of the city and mountains beyond. Explore the Denver Art Museum, particularly renowned for its extensive Native American art collection, considered one of the largest and most comprehensive in the country, alongside stunning works from around the world that promise to captivate and inspire. B, D

DAY 7: RETURN HOME

After exploring the diverse and majestic landscapes of the West, head home carrying irreplaceable memories with you. B ☀

Step into Salt Lake Temple, opening its doors for the first time since 1893
