DAY 3: ADIRONDACK TRAIN

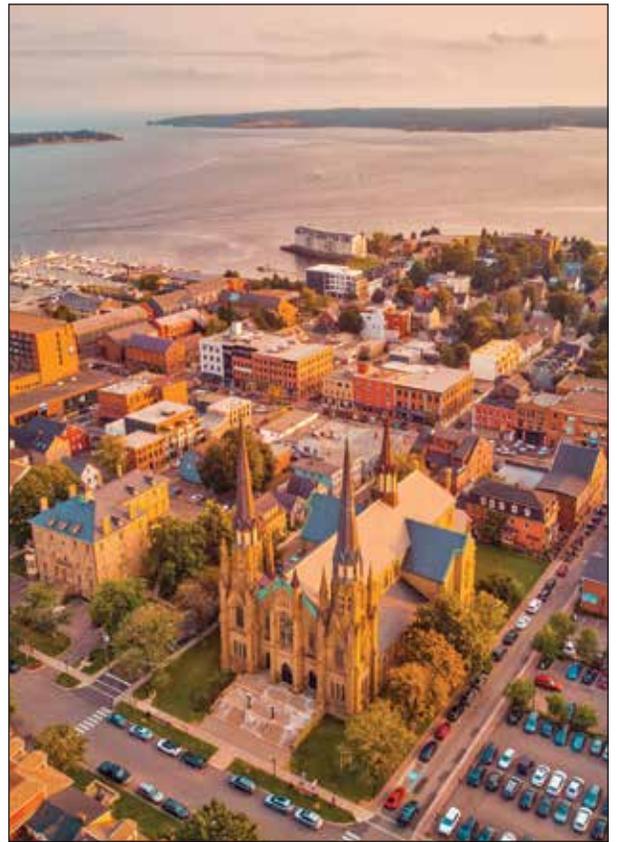

Trade the bus for one of the most scenic rail journeys in New England—the Adirondack Train by Amtrak. Sit back and relax as you glide through the breathtaking landscapes of the Hudson Valley, taking in sweeping views of the Hudson River, Lake Champlain, and the majestic Adirondack Mountains along the way. Your journey ends this evening in vibrant Montreal, Quebec, where you'll enjoy an overnight stay. B, L, D

DAY 4: MONTREAL & EMBARKATION

Visit the greatest sights in the city including Notre Dame Basilica, Old Port Sector, and Olympic Park. Get to know the sights, sounds, and culture of French Canada with the help of our local expert before we depart on our Holland America cruise that afternoon. While cruising we will see the nearly 750 mile stretch of the St. Lawrence River that is a lighthouse lover's paradise, with more than 40 of them lining the Québec portion alone. Quixotic weather and sudden choppy waters account for the building of these historic monuments, such as the one built in 1830 at Pointe-des-Monts and the Phare de Matane, both of which are now small museums. B, L, D

DAY 5: QUEBEC CITY, PORT OF CALL

Few places in North America are as steeped in history as Québec City, Canada. Older than Jamestown and founded before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, it is the only city north of Mexico whose original fortifications remain intact. The Québec City historic district, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is still home to religious orders and hospitals that date back to the 17th century. B, L, D

Charlottetown

DAY 6: DAY AT SEA (CRUISING ONLY)

A lighthouse on little St. Paul's Island is a stark reminder of days gone by as you sail past this infamous old shipwreck site, known as the graveyard of the gulf, on your way through the Cabot Strait and into the Gulf of St. Lawrence. So huge is the gulf that half of Canada's 10 provinces have a coastal connection to it. B, L, D

DAY 7: CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, PORT OF CALL

Charlottetown is the capital of Canada's smallest province, Prince Edward Island, as well as its largest city, though it has fewer than 35,000 residents. Despite its modest size, the city has an impressive number of Victorian houses and buildings and great parks waiting to be explored. Prince Edward Island is linked to New Brunswick on the mainland of Canada by the 13-kilometer (eight-mile) Confederation Bridge that soars over the Northumberland Strait. A remarkable feat of engineering, the bridge opened in 1997 and is the longest in the world over icy waters. B, L, D

Georges Island National Historic Site, Halifax, NS

DAY 8: SYDNEY, NOVA SCOTIA, PORT OF CALL

Sydney is the largest city on Cape Breton Island, which is linked by causeway to the rest of Nova Scotia. Sydney's attractions start at the harbor, where visitors can shop for locally made crafts and see the world's largest fiddle, which towers beside the port's cruise pavilion. Some of the city's historic houses and churches date back to the 1700s and 1800s and are open for tours. Restaurants often provide live music (expect fiddles and sea chanteys) along with meals of seafood fresh-caught in nearby waters. Sydney's galleries give visitors a chance to meet local artists and purchase their work. B, L, D

DAY 9: HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, PORT OF CALL

Located on a rocky inlet on the Atlantic Ocean, Halifax—Nova Scotia's provincial capital—is defined by its maritime geography. It's a spirited mix of world-class history and nautical-themed museums alongside bunkers and fortresses that guarded the harbor, plus striking public art and sights, and funky shops. Explore the Halifax waterfront where steamships once anchored to drop off arriving immigrants at Pier 21. Along Nova Scotia's southern shores, the city is surrounded by lush greenery and charming villages that are worth the trip from downtown proper. Snap photos of attractions in the charming fishing village, Peggy's Cove, with its picturesque lighthouse on a rocky outcropping. Or wander the streets of Lunenburg, whose colorful Old Town is designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. B, L, D

DAY 10: PORTLAND, ME, PORT OF CALL

Modern Portland, first settled in 1633, carries the marks of both subsets of Mainers. The restored brick buildings and warehouses of the Old Port and the fine upright houses of prosperous captains, merchants and shipbuilders make the city's past a living part of its present. Fishing boats chug into and out of their berths, buoys clang, harbor seals bark. Those shop windows aren't displaying hardtack, rope or hand salve, though. Juice joints, art galleries, bookstores, worshipful temples to coffee, locavore bistros with national press, bespoke menswear designers and gelato shops all jostle for attention. B, L, D

DAY 11: BOSTON, MA

Disembark the Volendam and fly home with the most amazing stories to tell family and friends. B ✨
