

Route 66

America's Most Legendary Road Trip

OCTOBER 8-18, 2027

Embark on the ultimate American road trip along U.S. Highway 66, the legendary “Mother Road.” Travel back in time through destinations that reflect a simpler era, where classic mom-and-pop shops and iconic roadside symbols tell the story of a nation on the move. Journey from Santa Monica Pier to St. Louis, discovering preserved motels, diners, gas stations, and roadside attractions that evoke the charm of a bygone age.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO CALIFORNIA!

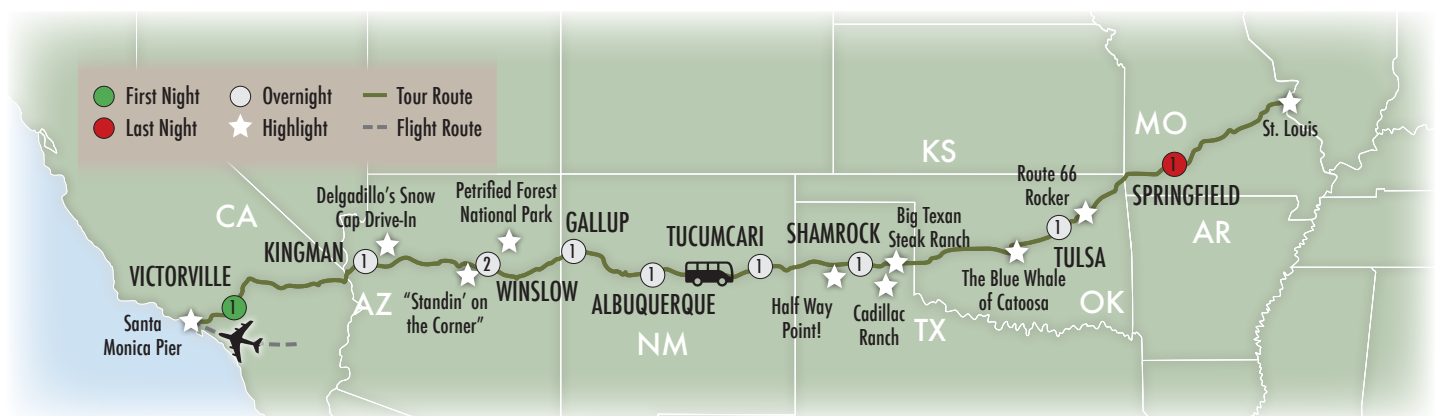

Your Route 66 journey starts where the Mother Road ends—at the iconic Santa Monica Pier. Capture a photo at the famous “End of the Trail” sign, browse souvenirs at the Last Stop Shop, and enjoy the ocean air, scenic Pacific views, and lively boardwalk atmosphere. Gather this evening with your fellow travelers for dinner. D

DAY 2: OATMAN, AZ

Cross the scenic Mojave Desert, visit a historic schoolhouse then experience the Old West in Oatman, where wild burros roam the streets and cowboys entertain visitors. Continue to Kingman and stop at the iconic Hackberry General Store, a landmark filled with vintage signs, classic memorabilia, and roadside charm. B, L

DAY 3: KINGMAN & SELIGMAN, AZ

Start the day at the Arizona Route 66 Museum located inside the Powerhouse Visitors Center before traveling to Seligman, the colorful town known as the birthplace of the Route 66 preservation movement. Learn how residents helped save the historic Mother Road. Browse iconic attractions such as Angel’s Barber Shop and Delgadillo’s Snow Cap before enjoying a two-night stay at the historic La Posada Hotel, celebrated for its Southwestern charm and rich railroad heritage. B, D

DAY 4: WINSLOW, AZ

Venture to one of the world's best-preserved meteor impact sites and enjoy views from the rim of this massive crater. This afternoon head over to Winslow's famous "Standin' on the Corner" Park before visiting Holbrook's iconic Wigwam Motel and Jack Rabbit Trading Post. Return to the historic La Posada Hotel this evening and enjoy time to explore its beautiful gardens and Southwestern art galleries. B, D

DAY 5: PETRIFIED FOREST NATIONAL PARK

Travel through Petrified Forest National Park with an audio guide and experience a unique landscape of colorful petrified wood, painted badlands, and sweeping desert vistas. This afternoon arrive at the historic El Rancho Hotel in Gallup, the famed lodging place of countless Hollywood stars during the golden age of Western filmmaking. Enjoy a presentation by a local historian. B, D

DAY 6: ALBUQUERQUE, NM

Continue into Albuquerque and travel along historic Central Avenue, discovering the stories behind its remarkable 18-mile stretch of Route 66. Spend the day exploring Old Town's historic plaza, adobe buildings, and shops. This evening, watch the Mother Road come alive as neon signs glow across historic motels, diners, and storefronts, recreating the nostalgic glow that once welcomed travelers from across America. B, D

DAY 7: SANTA FE & TUCAMCARI, NM

Head to Santa Fe, one of the largest cities on the original route, tour the historic Plaza, seek out historic Route alignments, admire Loretto Chapel, and browse the boutiques on Canyon Road where centuries of cultural influences blend. This afternoon capture the vintage charm of Tucumcari and tour the iconic Blue Swallow Motel B, D

DAY 8: AMARILLO, TX

Head to Texas, for a stop at the famous Midpoint sign, we're halfway there! It's the halfway point between Chicago and Santa Monica. Enjoy a lively Texas-style lunch at the legendary Big Texan Steak Ranch. Journey to the legendary Cadillac Ranch, where you can leave your mark by adding colorful artwork to this ever-changing installation. B, L

DAY 9: CATOOSA, OK

Take a venture to the Art Deco style U Drop Inn Café before adventuring to the Old Round Barn, a unique architectural landmark. See POPS, the iconic restaurant with the towering 66-foot-tall pop bottle statue. Tour the Route 66 Interpretive Center that explores the deeper meaning of Route 66 and how it brought opportunity, culture and economic life to small communities. B, D

DAY 10: JOPLIN, MO

Visit the whimsical Blue Whale of Catoosa. Continue to the Will Rogers Museum in Claremore to explore the life and legacy of the beloved humorist. Continue onward to view Ed Galloway's Totem Pole Park, a striking folk-art landmark and towering roadside masterpiece. Continue into Joplin to visit the Bonnie and Clyde Hideout before heading to Grand Falls, Missouri's largest continuously flowing natural waterfall. Conclude the day in Springfield, the official birthplace of Route 66, where the historic highway was named in 1926. Note: Springfield Departure ends today. B, D

DAY 11: CUBA, MO & RETURN HOME

Depart Springfield and wind down the journey with a stop in Cuba, known as the "Route 66 Mural City." Reflect and return home with lasting memories of your Route 66 journey. B 🌟
