Southern Belles in Natchez

MARCH 29-APRIL 3, 2026

Experience the Spring Pilgrimage in Natchez, MS

Gather your girlfriends and step into a world of timeless charm on this ladies-only getaway to Natchez, Mississippi. Timed to coincide with the famous Spring Pilgrimage, this delightful escape offers rare access to stunning historic homes, gracious hospitality, and blooming gardens. From sweet tea on the porch to stories of Southern elegance, enjoy fine food, warm company, and unforgettable memories made just for the gals.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO MEMPHIS!

Depart south through Missouri and Arkansas towards Memphis for an overnight stay. Hot Apps

DAY 2: HISTORIC JACKSON/NATCHEZ

Continue south through Jackson, MS. Here, stop and enjoy the spring breezes and blooming blossoms of Mynell Gardens Arboretum and Botanical Center. Tonight, get swept away as you enjoy a candlelight dinner in one of Natchez's gorgeous Pre-Civil War mansions. B, D

DAY 3: DAY CITY TOUR/FROGMORE PLANTATION

Join our local expert for history, anecdotes, and perhaps some secrets about their lovely city. Take a stroll through one of the storied homes before sharing a gracious tea at Magnolia Cottage. This afternoon, visit Frogmore Plantation, an 1800s cotton plantation that is still in operation today. Once again, be welcomed into a private home for a fabulous dinner. B, Tea, D

DAY 4: HISTORIC HOMES OF NATCHEZ

Take a final opportunity to peek inside the lives of 19th century Natchez residents. Elegant interiors, unique architecture, and fascinating history abound. Have lunch on the lawn at Linden House and have time to explore the shops in the area before dining in the Castle, located in the carriage house of Dunleith Historic Inn. B, L, D

DAY 5: ESSE PURSE MUSEUM/ LITTLE ROCK

Time to say goodbye to "the Bluff City" as you make your way to Little Rock, AR. Explore the riverfront and have lunch before visiting the Esse Purse Museum. This unique museum and store, features women's handbags and the day-to-day items carried in them, telling the story of women's lives through the 1900s. B,D
